FAMILY ENGAGEMENT
SERIES EVENT

TUESDAY, MAY 25TH

CHOICE OF TIMES:
10:00AM, 4:30PM OR 7:00PM

Via Zoom
Registration is required

In this interactive session, we will discuss what social emotional learning is and how the skills of self-awareness can support both children and adults in managing strong emotions during times of stress.

Ideas for helping children learn to label and express feelings in ways that support their social-emotional development and functioning at school and home will be shared.

Resources for families will be provided and explored.

Our Session Facilitator:

Howard Muscott, Ed.D., Director of the NH Center for Effective Behavior Supports for Southeastern Regional Education Service Center (SERESC)
